

En interview Sept. 8/75
with Robertson, WCB.

WCB Manual

pg. 8 safe working load is determined by manufacture. How often does the board intervene?

Illumination:

pg. 11 levels as recommended by Canadian Standards Assoc & IES.

pg. 19-23 Health Hazards and harmful substances - What kind of research is being done to determine detrimental conditions and substances?

Noise - examples of what 90 dBA is and 115 dBA.

- ask for copy of Factory Act \rightarrow Occupational Environment Regulations

~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Robertson - 8/9/75

- accident prevention
- first aid and safety
- industrial hygiene dept. - hearing branch
 - 2 medical officers
 - biomedics
 - audiologists - tracking
 - audiometric readings

Research? - regular inspections special office conditions - relatively safe.
 - filing cabinets

Various agencies:

- Dept. of Mines (underground)
- WCB (crown corporation) → reports through
- Department of Labour (down + cover farm help, domestic, professional - doctors, lawyers, engineers)
- Factories Act.

Industrial Hygiene → Mr. Selvaag.
 Mr. Rietger

- phoned back in afternoon - directed me to doctor in medical services branch.