INTRODUCTION

John Olldym Papers of Carnegie Community Centre Association
1986-1987
.25 m

The John Olldym Papers are the records of the CCCA activities and reports for the period 1986-1987. The papers include CCCAB administrators and financial reports and miscellaneous printed material from both the Centre and external social organizations - government and private. The papers were accessioned by the Special Collections from John Olldym in 1991.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

The papers were donated by John Olldym, a former board member on the Board of Directors of Carnegie Community Centre Association. The Carnegie Community Centre in the east side of downtown Vancouver is a main resource serving the social and recreational needs of the residents of the "Downtown Eastside". The Centre caters to all age groups providing courses, activities and social support.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The John Olldym Papers are contained in two boxes (12.5 X 39).

The papers are, in general, the records of one year in the life of the Carnegie Community Centre Association, 1986-1987. The records include administrative material encompassing reports and minutes from annual general and board meetings, financial reports, policy plans, and miscellaneous brochures.

The papers are divided into 3 series, A - C. They are further divided, in some cases, into sub-series, which are identified numerically.
