THE TURNOUR FAMILY PAPERS, 1746-1845.

The Turnour family papers were donated to the Library of the University of British Columbia by Robert Chad Turnour the 7th Earl Winterton, of 1326-55th Street, Delta, B. C. on Nov. 28, 1980. See attached pages from Burke's Peerage.

Mr. Turnour had received the set of family documents from the firm of Barlows, Solicitors and Commissioners for Oaths of 30 Church Street, Godalming Surrey.

The papers consist of eighteenth and nineteenth century parchment and paper documents chiefly concerning land transactions. They contain information about entails, land transfers, loans, etc. as they related to one family over a long period of time. The papers include 5 appended seals.

The arrangement of the papers is chronological. The last item has a schedule of title deeds and documents relating to Lord Winterton's estates attached. Not all the documents referred to in the schedule are in the collection presented to the Library.

THE TURNOUR FAMILY PAPERS, 1746-1845.

The Turnour family papers were donated to the Library of the University of British Columbia by Robert Chad Turnour the 7th Earl Winterton, of 1326-55th Street, Delta, B. C. on Nov. 28, 1980. See attached pages from Burke's Peerage.

Mr. Turnour had received the set of family documents from the firm of Barlows, Solicitors and Commissioners for Oaths of 30 Church Street, Godalming Surrey.

The papers consist of eighteenth and nineteenth century parchment and paper documents chiefly concerning land transactions. They contain information about entails, land transfers, loans, etc. as they related to one family over a long period of time. The papers include 5 appended seals.

The arrangement of the papers is chronological. The last item has a schedule of title deeds and documents relating to Lord Winterton's estates attached. Not all the documents referred to in the schedule are in the collection presented to the Library.

Calendar of the
"Turnour Deeds"

1992

INTRODUCTION

These deeds were returned to R.C. Turnour, 7th Earl Winterton, of Delta, B.C. by Messrs Barlows, solicitors, of 30 Church Street, Godalming Surrey, and by him presented to the University Library in 1980.

Deed 22 was not seen and is listed from other information available at the Library. Place names have been checked where possible, but no attempt has been made to identify farm and field names. Where 'signature' is added after the name of a person it indicates that it was signed, and usually sealed, by that person. All the documents, which are stored in two boxes, are in good condition.
