Fonds Description

Alice Borden fonds. – 1932-1970.

2.5 m of textual records.

67 photographs.

4 audio reels.

1 film.

Biographical Sketch

Alice Borden (nee Witken) obtained her B.A. at the University of California in 1930. She married the noted archaeologist Charles Borden in 1931. Borden studied at the University of Heidelberg (1935-1936), taught at her private kindergarten for a time and later became the first Director of the University of British Columbia's Child Study Centre (1961-1963). Thereafter, she served as a professor in the Faculty of Education until 1970.

Scope and Content

The fonds consists of records which document Borden's teaching career from Kindergarten instruction through university professor of early childhood education. The fonds is divided in eight series: biographical series, correspondence series, play school series, literary productions series, printed materials series, subject files series, Child Study Centre series and audiovisual series.

Notes

Researchers are strongly advised to check with the University Archives regarding permission to publish or otherwise use materials from this fonds.
