Biographical Sketch

Charles Bourne was born in Barbados in 1921. He married Barbara (daughter of Glenville and Dorothy Farmer) on 20 August 1949. The Bournes have three children: Frances, Peter, and Angela. Charles Bourne received post-secondary degrees from the University of Toronto (BA 1945) and St. John's College, Cambridge (LLM, 1947), and University of Toronto (SJD 1970). He was called to the Bars of Middle Temple (1947), Barbados (1949), and British Columbia (1957). He began his academic career at the University of Saskatchewan in the College of Law in 1947. He remained there until 1950 when he accepted a position at the University of British Columbia, where he was an associate professor 1950-1957, and then a full professor. Bourne served as Academic-in-Residence of the legal Bureau Department of External Affairs, Ottawa (1971-72), Honorary Solicitor and member of the Board of Governors for Vancouver School of Theology (1971-80), and Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Yearbook of International Law (1962-92). He also served as president of the Canadian British International Law Association (1961-64) and the Canadian Council of International Law (1978-80). Bourne was a member of the UBC Senate and served as an advisor to the President with responsibility for relations between the University and the Faculty Association (1975-1986). Bourne specialized in administrative, constitutional, and international law, with particular emphasis on international drainage basins and environmental protection. He retired from UBC in 1986.

Scope and Content

Notes

Researchers are strongly advised to check with the University Archives regarding permission to publish or otherwise use materials from this fonds.

Fonds title based on provenance of records.

Order of the third accrual (2003) has been imposed by the archivist.

Square brackets, such as [1 of 2] and [2 of 2], are used to indicate that one of Bourne's files has been divided into multiple files for storage and conservation reasons.

Access to some records in the fonds is restricted in order to protect the personal privacy of individuals named in the documents. Please consult the series descriptions, the file list, and the archivist for further details.

No further accruals are expected.

Series descriptions and file list are available.
