Fonds Description

Philip and Helen Akrigg fonds. – 1580-1993.

11.24 m of textual records and other material.

Biographical Sketch

Born in Calgary in 1913, George Philip Vernon Akrigg received a B.A. (1937) and M.A. (1940) from the University of British Columbia and his Ph.D. from the University of California (1944). He began his UBC teaching career in the Dept. of English in 1941. The author of many scholarly articles and books, Akrigg continued his research in the field of British Columbia history after his retirement in 1978. He died in 2001.

Helen Brown Akrigg (nee Manning) was born in British Columbia in 1921. She received a B.A. from UBC (1943). After raising a family she returned to academic life and in 1964 earned an M.A. in history from UBC. She subsequently served as part-time instructor in the Dept. of Geography and later, with husband Philip continued her research into British Columbia history and place names.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of essays, articles, offprints, reviews, contracts, correspondence, a CV, a scrapbook, photocopies, maps, plans, notes, microfilm, and photographs pertaining to the personal lives and research of Philip and Helen Akrigg. For additional information about the maps in the fonds refer to the separate hard-copy inventory, available at the University Archives office.

Includes: ca. 530 photographs, 18 microfilm reels, 223 maps, 1 scrapbook, 12 2-drawer boxes of index cards.

Series Descriptions

Research Collections series. – 1580-1993.

10.59 m of textual records and other material.

Series consists of three research collections maintained by Helen and Philip Akrigg: British Columbia History; William Shakespeare, the Earl of Southampton, James I & the Jacobean Period; and Garnett G. Sedgewick research collections. The first research collection includes photocopies, photoprints, maps, plans, notes and other materials used by Helen and Philip Akrigg for their books on British Columbia history and place names. The second research collection consists of microfilms, photocopies, photographs and original English documents acquired by Philip Akrigg while working on his books about William Shakespeare, the Earl of Southampton, James I and the Jacobean period. The final collection is composed of research materials relating to G.G. Sedgewick assembled for Akrigg's Garnett Sedgewick Memorial Lecture (1980).

For maximum usefulness of the British Columbia History research collection the following list of xeroxed items relating to the early history of British Columbia should be used with the subject card index.

Includes: 547 photographic prints, 34 microfilm reels, 223 maps, 112 glass plate negatives, 151 slides, 17 audiocassette tapes, 12 2-drawer boxes of index cards.

Boxes 1-15(4), 18-23, 25-42, 45-51
