

March 16, '91

2) Kinds of philosophical ~~and~~ and religions & feminist ideas at the John Abbott CEGEP.

My miseries (your word or mine?) keep me to my severe schedule of not going out in the evening. Last night I got hooked on an ETV program about all the great stars of yesteryear (singing & dancing stars) & I yearned for those simple times when movies filled you with delight & made you laugh. Did you ever see Fred Astaire walk (Kirk on the ceiling or Gene Kelly singing "Walkin' in the Rain")

So, on a nostalgic note -

Love to you -
Mama

Dear Carolyn,

A thought occurred to me, but only if you've given up smoking?? Things forgotten... And I suddenly couldn't remember whether it's CAROL-LIN or CAROL-LINE. Though you said one (or the other) when you called.

The thought that occurred was that my friend, Ann Pearson who has an apt. at 435 Grosvenor, takes nice people for B. & B. But non-smoking & not allergic to cats. I couldn't tell her your exact dates. She's very friendly & bright (maybe you know her) & is a photographer & teacher of all