Dear Peter:

Our current collective agreement contains a letter of agreement with the University of British Columbia to set up a joint committee to review benefit plans.

Jane Strudwick has indicated that she has contacted the various unions on campus requesting representatives to serve on this committee. We would appreciate it if you would let us know how you feel about the concept of reviewing our benefit plans, and if you are planning to nominate someone to sit on this committee.

I am enclosing a copy of our collective agreement (in case you don't already have one) and would appreciate receiving a copy of your agreement as soon as it is available.

I look forward to hearing from you soon as we are most anxious to activate this committee and to hopefully improve our benefit package.

Yours truly,

Wendy Bice
