

The Bankruptcy Act 1862.

To The Supreme Court of Civil Justice of the Colony of Vancouver Island
In Bankruptcy

The Humble Petition of William Parsons Hayward of Wharf Street in the City of Victoria Charles Keet, of Fort Street in the said City of Victoria and Edward. Willson also of Fort Street in the said City of Victoria.

Showeth,

That John Joseph Meedy, Carpenter, having resided and carried on business for six calendar months next immediately preceding the date of this Petition within the District of the Honorable Court, that is to say at View Street in the City of Victoria is indebted to your Petitioners in the sum of One Hundred pounds Sterling at the least.

And that your Petitioners have been informed and believe that the said John Joseph Meedy did lately commit an act of bankruptcy within the true intent and meaning of the law of bankruptcy

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that on proof of the requisites in that behalf adjudication of bankruptcy may be made against the {

the said John Joseph McCredy.

And your Petitioners shall ever pray

Checked.
