Dear Kim:

We have been advised by the Employee Relations Department that you work occasionally, when needed, in the Computing Centre, either in the evenings or on weekends.

They have you listed as an Hourly employee and are paying the appropriate hourly rate for the classification, namely, Data Control Clerk I.

In the months that you work more than 10 hours per week, you are paying union dues. Therefore, you must become a member of this union. Membership in the union is a condition of employment at UBC.

Please complete the enclosed form and return it to us along with the $1.00 application fee. You will then receive a union card and all union publications.

Yours truly,

Carole Cameron
