So, what does the passing of the Special Assessment mean?

Locals 2, 4, 5 & 6 have voted in favour of supporting our brothers and sisters at Local 1 (UBC), at a time of severe strain on that Local's financial resources. This can be seen as a sign of maturity within our union. The affirmative vote shows that AUCE members recognise the need for supporting fights that can and do affect all of us.

One way of breaking unions is to break them financially and it is not inconceivable that the management of the University of B.C. has been viewing with great interest the financial problems of Local 1.

The message from the membership at our sister locals is a clear one; that we will support our sisters and brothers at Local 1 - we will not allow financial burdens to become too heavy for that membership. The affirmative result is a clear statement for all other employees at our locals, as well.

Such a show of solidarity for AUCE Local 1 further indicates that other locals can be assured of similar support in our union's strike situations.

And that's what counts.

And, of course, CONGRATULATIONS to Local 1 and CONGRATULATIONS to SHEILA BLACE and LAUMA AVENS, AUCE's Trustee and Co-ordinator.
