Dear Sir:-

We are desirous of buying German combs in cellophane envelopes, but we want our premium coupons inserted in each envelope, and the question arises as to what the custom regulations are as to duty, etc. on such printed matter entering ~~Germany~~ Canada, on the conditions that these printed premium coupons are shipped back to us with the merchandise.

We do not believe it possible for us to secure a price on these coupons printed in Germany, for the small amount we would need, in comparison to the quantity we have printed here. Hence, our object in sending these coupons over.

I would be glad to hear from you giving me as much details as possible in regard to customs regulations in the case stated above.

Yours very truly,

EVERYTHING IN CELLULOID
