TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

RE: LUTHERAN CAMPUS CENTRE, UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENT LANDS

It has come to our attention that the Lutheran Campus Centre may not be able to continue functioning because of a large increase in the lease rate for the land on which the centre stands.

In our initial organizing stages, the Lutheran Campus Centre provided us with meeting space that could not be obtained anywhere else on the U.B.C. campus. This was a much needed service and certainly contributed to the fact that we are now a legally certified union representing 1,200 library and clerical workers at the University of B.C.

We wish to lend our support to the Lutheran Campus Centre and urge that every step be taken to allow them to continue the kind of work they have carried on in the past.

Yours truly,

Ian Mackenzie
