Dear Sir:

We have several export shipments to make to Germany, and being unable to get the desired information in this city, are compelled to write to you.

Please advise us what particular form of invoices are required for goods entering Germany direct from Canada, also what other papers besides invoices are necessary to avoid delays and inconveniences at the Hamburg port to which these goods will be sent.

A prompt reply will be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you, we are

Very truly yours,
