Ottawa, February 10, 1937

Feb. 10. 11. 37

Sir,

In the past you have been so kind as to supply this Consulate General, which was formerly located in Montreal and, on January 1, 1937, was transferred to Ottawa, with seven copies of all sorts of communications (memorandums, bulletins, circulars, etc.), concerning the Canadian Customs Regulations.

Given the fact that henceforth the German Consulate General is in Ottawa and the German Consulate remains in Montreal, I should be very much obliged if, in the future, you would kindly send six copies to this Office in Ottawa and one copy to the German Consulate in Montreal under the address:

German Consulate
(~~Vice-Consul Schafhausen~~)
1440 St. Catherine St. W.,
M o n t r e a l, Que.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(L. Kempff)
German Consul General
