Dear Sir:

I desire to get a market.

in Germany for the following fish varieties, namely

Speckled trout pickled in barrels of 200 lbs. and $\frac{1}{2}$ bbls. of 100 pounds

Salmon packed just same packing as mentioned,

Halibut stripped in slices or fletched, pickled in barrels and $\frac{1}{2}$ bbls of 100 and 200 lbs,

Turpet packed in the same and lined but not stripped.

Deutsche Zelle

2,

Eels, pickled in barrels, of 100 and 200 lbs.

Lotsters,
packed in Cases containing 48 1 lb Cans, and in Cases containing 96 tins of $\frac{1}{2}$ lbs.
Crayfish packed in the same way.

I will have about 2500 Cases, lotsters.

2000 Cases of Crayfish.

Those speckled trout are caught in very cold deep water. and are very delicious.

I would like to secure a market for the trout, packed in 1 pound tins, and would be pleased to pack in any desired style of tin

3.

Suitable for the market,
I desire also to get a market, for Canned Eels,
As I have verified information that Canned Eels are a good price on the Continent. and will pack 4000 cases according to the orders of those interested,
I will be packing those named thirties on the Laborador, boat and ship them either from the Canadian port or the Newfoundland port.
Those fish will all be packed and cured within 8 hours from the time they are caught,
