Dear Ms. Nixon:

Thank you for your letter of April 7, 1986 regarding the new contract. The Union and the University reached an agreement in April, 1986, but I regret to inform you that retroactive pay was not part of that agreement and therefore none of our members received retroactive pay. A signing bonus was paid out only to members on the University payroll on the date of signing the new agreement.

I am sorry to have to relay this disappointing news, however the Contract Committee and the membership felt that we had exhausted the bargaining process and nothing more could be achieved by extending negotiations further.

Yours truly,

Helen Glavina
Secretary
