To Adrian Kiernan:

Just a note to say that I agree with your letter regarding the covers of ON CUE. While it is important that content and format should never be censored, the unnecessary sarcasm & stupidity of the covers are not necessary.

If "sense of humor" is what the cover is supposed to represent, I'd rather be depressed. By the way, if we are going to have cartoons on the cover, why not a Far Side cartoon, or some such thing, that will bring a smile — I find the February cover preachy and condescending.

Yours sincerely,
Mary Patola
