Dear Ms. Nowitsky:

In reply to your two inquiries of July 9 and July 22, 1976, it should be noted that according to the Collective Agreement between the University of British Columbia and the Association of University and College Employees, Local #1, in Article 1, "No employee shall be required or permitted to make written or verbal agreement with the University or its representatives which may conflict with the terms of this agreement."

I suggest that you bring this matter to the attention of your elected Executive who will review it with the University.

Sincerely,

W. L. Clark
Assistant Director of
