

Public Forum On The B.C. Budget

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 15TH
7:30 TO 9:30 P.M.
AUDITORIUM JOHN OLIVER SECONDARY SCHOOL
450 EAST 41ST AVENUE AT FRASER
VANCOUVER, B.C.

Come to a free Public Forum on key elements of the provincial government's proposed legislation accompanying the budget. This free Forum, sponsored by the People's Law School, will feature brief explanations of the legislation by a panel of lawyers, a law professor and a political scientist. Following their presentations, you will have an opportunity to ask questions. Everyone is welcome!

Speakers

■ Paul Tennant, a UBC political science professor, will discuss the implications of the budget from an historical perspective.

■ Bill Black, a UBC law professor, will examine changes to human rights legislation.

■ John Kinzie, a Vancouver lawyer, will speak about changes in the School Act.

■ Allan MacLean, a Vancouver lawyer, will discuss proposed changes to landlord-tenant legislation.

■ Leo McGrady, a Vancouver lawyer, will speak about possible changes to B.C. labor law.

If you plan to attend, please pre-register by calling the People's Law School at 734-1126 during office hours. The auditorium is wheel-chair accessible.

People's Law School, 3466 W. Broadway, Vancouver, B.C. V6R 2B3, 734-1126