Dear Sheila:

Thank you for your letter of Feb. 15th which we received today. We probably won't print it because we will be dealing with the issue of retroactivity at the Union meeting Feb. 19th, and the next newsletter won't be out until March.

With regards to your comments on the newsletter and letters to the Ubysey, I think they are very constructive. I do not know if you were aware that we print the newsletter using articles which have been submitted by AUCE members. We have very little help with the newsletter, and would gladly welcome you or anyone else who would like to contribute to it's contents. We can only do so much from this office, unfortunately, with the constant problems we are encountering simply in policing the collective agreement, and would gladly send letters to the Ubysey on behalf of the Union had we the time. Again, I would encourage you to assist in this regard, as we do rely on volunteer labour in this Union.

Thank you again for your comments. If you want something printed in the AUCE Newsletter, please do not hesitate to send it to us. In the past we have requested that articles for our newsletter be typed and as accurately as possible in order to speed up the process of it's publication.

Yours truly,

Wendy Bice
