

Extract from:

Allied Translator and Interpreter Section
Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers

after

RESEARCH REPORT

No. 131

Date. 1 Dec. 45

JAPAN'S DECISION TO FIGHT - page 7

(e) Policy toward the SOVIET UNION.

The strength of SOVIET forces on the SOVIET-MANCHUKUOAN border is formidable.

The UNION OF SOCIALISTIC SOVIET REPUBLICS is maintaining a vigilant alert, awaiting developments. However, if the Empire does not attack the SOVIET UNION, it is believed that the SOVIET UNION will not commence hostilities.