Mr. R. A. Grant, Director
Employee Relations
U.B.C.

Dear Mr. Grant:

There appears to be some confusion as to which Union officers the University should contact in the various areas of mutual concern. I should therefore like to remind you of our various jurisdictions.

All questions pertaining to grievances, and the interpretation of the current collective agreement should be directed to the Grievance Committee and its Chairman. Anything pertaining to negotiations or proposals for a future collective agreement should be directed to the Contract Committee, or, until the Chairperson of this committee has been elected, to myself. Other matters, which are the concern of the Executive, should be addressed to said body through myself. I can usually be reached during the day at [REDACTED], especially if you call before 10:00. You can also leave messages at the Union office.

Routine or administrative matters may be dealt with through Fairleigh Funston in the Union office.

Yours truly,

Ian Mackenzie
On behalf of Local #1 Executive
