Introduction

Gertrude Ellen Harris (October 10, 1904 - June 15, 1967)

Ellen Harris, daughter of Abraham Code and Gertrude Casilda Drewry, was a prominent radio broadcaster during the 1940's and 1950's. Her program Morning Visit ran from 1944 to 1952. Besides this program, she appeared on many other radio shows and in the early 1950's was involved with school broadcasts on the C.B.C.

This family tree is incomplete. Only those people who are mentioned in the Ellen Harris papers have been listed.

Broadcasts and Speeches or Morning Visit scripts that were never used. These are broadcasts that Ellen Harris did besides Morning Visit and speeches that she delivered on various occasions. Since most of these scripts are not dated, they have been arranged in alphabetical order by title or, where the script is untitled, by first line. If the title of the broadcast or speech is the name of a person, the script has been foldered under the surname of that person.

Fanmail Replies

Many replies to fanmail have been foldered with the fan letter or note that occasioned the reply. However, the fan letters or notes that occasioned some of the replies have not been ascertained; thus, these replies have been foldered separately. In a few cases, where the fan letter or note is undated, the fan letter or note has been foldered with the fanmail replies, because the replies are dated. Most of the replies are written by Ellen Harris, but some of them are written by people on her behalf.

INVENTORY

The Ellen Harris Papers (ADDENDUM)

This inventory describes the third lot of Ellen Harris Papers presented to the library by her son, Cole Harris in 1979. The material consists mostly of radio plays produced for CBC radio under the auspices of the B.C. Department of education and known as the School Broadcasts. These broadcasts (BOX 31 and 32) are dramatizations by Ellen Harris of well known stories.

The collection also includes many photographs of Ellen Harris and various Zonta International Club functions.

This collection was organized and described by J.M. Cameron, December, 1979.

I INTRODUCTION:

This is the fourth accession of the Ellen Harris Papers, which were donated to the Special Collections and University Archives Division by Ellen's son, Cole Harris. These papers consist primarily of correspondence, and some memorabilia.

II BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH:

Ellen Code Harris was born in 1904 and died of heart trouble in 1967. In the 1920s and 1930s Ellen was instrumental in organizing theatre clubs for children. One such club was the Humpty Dumpty Theatre Club and another was the Children's Theatre Club. The purpose of these clubs was to raise money to provide Christmas gifts for children's hospitals. In the 1940s and 1950s Ellen was the host of a prominent radio programme called Morning Visit. From the late 1940s and into the 1960s, Ellen was actively involved in the Zonta Club of Vancouver, B.C., and later went on to become the president of the Zonta International Club. This club was a women's executive organization, which aimed to promote high ethical standards in business. On top of this busy schedule, Ellen was married to Dick Harris, in 1930, and was the mother of two children.

III SCOPE AND CONTENT:

The Ellen Harris papers include incoming and outgoing correspondence, manuscripts, scrapbooks, diaries and several miscellaneous items, including an address book, photographs, newspaper clippings and other such items. All correspondence has been arranged in reverse chronological order according to the last received date. The correspondence offers an extensive look into many of Ellen's personal relationships.

VI SERIES DESCRIPTION:

A. OUTGOING CORRESPONDENCE SERIES, 1912-1966

17 files

Ellen's correspondence over a 58 year period. The majority of the letters are to family, and several are to friends. They are arranged in reverse chronological order with undated letters placed at the back of each file. Personal names are listed in the index.

A.1 Letters to Dick Harris, 1929-63 Box 39

8 files

Includes correspondence from the time Ellen and Dick began dating in the late 1920s until 1963, four years before her death. Ellen corresponded with Dick during several significant events in her life, such as her visits with her parents in Winnipeg, her 1942 visits with the Doctor in Minnesota, and her travels with the Zonta International Club in 1963. Enclosed in several letters are various newspaper clippings, photographs, postcards, other letters addressed to friends and family, a manuscript of a play, and a unique conversation letter.

A.2 Letters to Gertrude Code, 1928-55 Box 40:1-4

4 files

Correspondence to Ellen's mother beginning two years before Ellen's marriage to Dick. Enclosed in several of Ellen's letters are letters to Gertrude from friends and family. Other enclosures include wedding thank you notes, photographs and newspaper clippings.

A.3 Letters to Susan Harris, 1961-63 Box 40:5

1 file

Letters to Ellen's daughter during her European Zonta tour, and her stay in Minnesota with her brother. Enclosures include several photographs, newspaper clippings, and an opera programme. Several envelopes remain attached to letters to identify Ellen's location during her European tour.

A.4 Letters to Cole Harris, 1955-66 Box 40:6-8

3 files

Occassional letters to Ellen's son over an 11 year period. Enclosed in several of Ellen's letters are letters to Cole from friends and institutions. Other enclosures include several photographs, postcards, newspaper clippings and an itinerary for Ellen's European Zonta tour.

A.5 General Correspondence, 1912-33 Box 40:9

1 file

Four letters to other family members and a friend.

B. INCOMING CORRESPONDENCE SERIES, 1908-1967

61 files

Correspondence received by Ellen from individuals and various institutions from 1919 to 1967. Individuals include her parents, siblings, children and friends. The correspondence received from institutions represents only a fragmented record of Ellen's business affairs. The files, and items within files, are arranged in reverse chronological order, with undated letters placed at the back of each file. Individuals who corresponded more than once are grouped by author and arranged by date of last correspondence. Single authors are arranged separately and are found in the sub-series entitled Single Correspondents, Christmas Cards, and Estate Letters. The personal names have been listed alphabetically in the index, except for those mentioned in the above sub-series of single authors.

B.1 Business Affairs, 1930-65 Box 41:1

1 file

Business letters from a small variety of institutions, including the Lion's Crippled Children Fund, the Women's Christian Association, insurance companies, and other institutions.

B.2 Dick Harris Letters, 1929-61 Box 41:2-9

8 files

Letters from July 1929 to July 1930 are addressed to Ellen Code. The remaining letters are addresses to Mrs. Ellen Harris, following her marriage, in August 1930, to Dick Harris. The correspondence concerns Dick's summer holidays, Ellen's visits to hospitals and Ellen's European Zonta tour. Enclosed in some letters are several photographs and newspaper clippings related to events in Ellen and Dick's lives.

B.3 Som Letters, 1926-30 Box 42-43

12 files

Letters from Som (also referred to as Nick) regarding his personal relationship with Ellen. Daily correspondence beginning in June, 1926 continues until January 1928, and is followed by a single letter in April 1930.

B.4 Parents' Letters, 1912-55 Box 44:1-4

4 files

Correspondence from Ellen's mother, father and grandfather. Enclosed in several letters are newspaper clippings and notes from other family members.

B.5 Siblings, 1919-66 Box 45:5-8

4 files

Correspondence from Ellen's siblings, including her brother, Edward Code, just before his death in 1918. Enclosed in the Edward file is a letter from a Lieutenant Robert Kent, addressed to the Code Family containing information about Edward's death.
