

John Wallace de Beque Farris, 1878-1970

An inventory of His Papers in the Library of the University of British Columbia
Special Collections Division

Introduction

John Wallace de Beque Farris was born in Whites' Cove New Brunswick in December, 3rd., 1878 to Lauchlan P. Farris and Mary Louise Hay Farris. J. Wallace de B. Farris appears to have obtained his political skills quite naturally. His father, Lauchlan Farris had been a Minister of Agriculture in the New Brunswick Legislative and his grandfather, John Farris, had been member in the New Brunswick Legislature before Confederation and was the first member of Parliament for Queens County, N.B. after Confederation.

Before entering college, J.W. de B. Farris attended the public school in Whites' Cove and St. Martinns Seminary. Up on completed enrolled at Acadia University in Wolfville, Nova Scotia Where he obtained his B.A. and following this, he recieved his LL.B. During his years in Pennsylvania he courted Evlyn Fenwick Kierstad of Windsor, Nova Scotia and they were married on August 5th, 1905. They had four children; Katherine Hay, Donald Fenwick, Ralph Kierstad and Lauchlan John. After moving to British Columbia, J.W. de B. Farris joined the Liberal Party and was first elected to the British Columbia Legislature in 1916 and served as Attorney-General of that province from 1917 to 1922. He was appointed to the Senate in 1936 and served as Council before the Privy Council and Supreme Court of Canada in many important cases.

Farris served as the president of both the Canadian Bar Association and B.C. Law Society. He also recieved honory degrees from University of British Columbia and Acadia University.

The Farris papers arrived at UBC's Special Collections Division divided into Miscellaneous files and "File from Ottawa." After sorting the two files, it was apparent that subject matters did not differ and as a result the correspondence and legal files contain paper from both the miscellaneous and Ottawa files. The outgoing letters are sorted into chronological order and incoming correspondence is filed in alphabetical order. In many cases the file folders for many subject and legal files were not labelled by Farris, the headings were formulated at the discretion of the sorter. Legal files are differentiated from subject files in that former usually consist of court cases.

The papers contained five subjects: Jacob Kierstad

Dr. E. M. Kierstad

Evelyn Fenwick Farris

John D. Farris and John L. Farris

"More information on these persons can be found in the scrapbook."
