Introduction

The records were transferred to the Special Collections Division by Grace MacInnis' secretary from her constituency office on April 28, 1980. The material consists of records from the New Democratic Party, Vancouver-Kingsway Constituency office from 1972 to early 1975, along with lists from 1968. Also included are printed materials relating to the activity of the organization, and in subject areas. Subject files already existed when the records were received, but little other order was evident. The order has been established in series by type of material, with chronological order prevailing within series.

Additional records were transferred from Rio Hall, 3325 Kingsway, relating to the activities of the Vancouver East Provincial Constituency Office, ca. 1957-1970's, and the CCF-NDP. The material was selected at random from a vault in Rio Hall without any apparent order.
