CAMPUS MAIL

Dear Mr. Clark:

Further to my letter of June 29, 1981 concerning [REDACTED] and his Section 11 application to the Labour Relations Board, we have heard nothing further either from [REDACTED] or from your office.

I spoke to [REDACTED] and he promised to send this office a copy of his application to the LRB. We have not received it as yet.

The Union wishes to know if [REDACTED] intends to pursue his Section 11 application. If so, he should do so, if not the University can get him to sign a dues authorization form. Even if the Labour Relations Board did decide to make him exempt from the Union, something that they allow very rarely, he would have to pay an amount the equivalent of union dues to us. We wish to have this matter settled.

Yours truly,

Carole Cameron
