

In the Supreme Court of Civil Justice Vancouver Island

In Bankruptcy

In re Alfred Robertson a Bankrupt.

We James Reid Robertson of Victoria Vancouver Island Manager for Thomas Pattick of Victoria, aforesaid one of the assignees of the Estate of the above named Bankrupt and Robert Bishop of the same place Attorney at Law Solicitor to the assignees severally make oath and say as follows that is to say

- 1 I this deponent James Reid Robertson for myself say that shortly after the said Bankrupt absconded in the month of January last I saw William Lynns of Victoria Junkeper who had gone to Port Townsend after the said Bankrupt and who told me that he had seen Richard Doherty of Victoria BAKER over there with the said Bankrupt Alfred Robertson and what said Richard Doherty is one of the clerks for the said Alfred Robertson and that the said Bankrupt had given the said Richard Doherty a Gold Watch and Chain and money to make him safe as far as possible
- 2 I also say that the said Richard Doherty informed me about a week or ten days since that he had made off his Property to protect himself against the claim which the Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate had made against him on the Bond signed by him and John Lemon

And I this other deponent Robert Drolap 3 for myself say that I was present with the first named deponent James Reid Robertson and heard the statement made by the said William Lyons to the effect stated and sworn to by the said deponent James Reid Robertson ..

I further say that the said Richard Doherty himself told me that he had followed the Bankrupt Robertson and his wife to Port Townsend to make himself safe but that he had not got so much as he ought out of the Bankrupt - This was said in reference to the Bond given by the said Richard Doherty and the said John Lemon on account of Robertson's Bankruptcy

Sworn by the deponents James Reid Robertson and Robert Drolap severally at Victoria aforesaid this Thirtieth day of May A.D. 1865. Before me.
