BE SURE TO SEE THE

BELGO-CANADIAN EXPOSITION

ON OUR FIFTH FLOOR—NO ADMISSION CHARGE

You will see fine laces, hand-made by the Belgians of today, but whose art has been influenced by several centuries of lace making . . . you will see Brussels tapestries which go back as far as the 17th century, and also modern Belgian tapestries. You will see books that date from the 11th century . . . fine Belgian crystal from the famed Val St. Lambert crystalleries . . . the Coat-of-Arms of the City of Antwerp, set with diamonds . . . Belgian Congo art . . . and many, many other interesting exhibits in the Belgo-Canadian Exposition, on the Fifth Floor.

The Exposition is under the auspices of l'Association Belgique Canada, in co-operation with the Belgian Government, and under the distinguished patronage of Baron Silvercruys, Belgian Minister to Canada.
