Dear Sir or Madam:

We are interested in obtaining a copy of the NIOSH report on operator health presented by Dr. Michael Smith, chief of the Motivational and Stress Research Section of the Applied Psychology and Ergonomics Branch of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health at the International Information/Word Processing Association's annual conference in Atlanta during the summer of 1981.

Should there be any charge for sending us the report please send your invoice along with the report. Thank you.

Yours truly,

Carole Cameron
