

Oct. 21, 1986

Libby Nason
Personnel Services
Campus Mail

Hand delivered

Dear Ms. Nason,

We have been informed that the Health Sciences Association are picketing The Vancouver General Hospital today. We consider any picket line put up by the HSA at that hospital to be bona fide, as per Article 17.01.

We do not consider any of our members at VGH to be essential under the definition of essential services given in the Labour Code or the Essential Services Disputes Act.

Sincerely,

Ted Byrne
Union Representative