

MLA DAY, OCT. 22 & 24, 1985

SCHEDULE

- 9:30 a.m. Welcome of MLAs by University President pro tem. Robert Smith in Board Room, Old Administration Building. Name tags and information packages distributed.
- 9:40 MLAs depart on bus for laboratory of Dr. William Emery, oceanography department, in Bookstore building.
- 9:50 Demonstration by Dr. Emery of research and development to interpret images from orbiting weather satellites.
- 10:15 Leave for pilot plant tree seedling nursery, Faculty of Forestry, south campus.
- 10:25 Discussion of nursery with Dr. Robert Kennedy, dean of the Faculty of Forestry, and Dr. Denis Lavender, head of the forest science department.
- 10:50 Leave for Botanical Gardens nursery.
- 10:55 Description of program to introduce Botanical Garden stock into the commercial nursery trade with Dr. James Richards, dean of the Faculty of Agricultural Sciences (who will be available on Oct. 22 only) and Mr. Bruce MacDonald, assistant director, Botanical Gardens.
- 11:20 Leave for food pilot plant of Dr. William Powrie, head of the food science department, in the basement of the MacMillan Building.
- 11:30 Demonstration and tasting of new foods and traditional foods preserved in new ways with Dr. Powrie.
- 12:00 noon Leave for buffet lunch at Social Suite of Faculty Club.
- 12:10 p.m. Arrive at Faculty Club for luncheon.
- 1:15 Leave Faculty Club for first of two workshops in Board Room of Old Administration Building.
- 1:30 Workshop begins on industrial liaison and technology transfer with Dr. James Murray, University-Industry Liaison Officer, and Dr. Axel Meisen, dean of the Faculty of Applied Science.
- 2:20 End of first workshop.
- 2:30 Workshop begins on trade opportunities and the Pacific Rim with Dr. James Brander, Faculty of Commerce and Business Administration; Dr. Malcolm Smith, Faculty of Law; and Dr. Sam Ho, head of the economics department.
- 3:20 Leave for tour of performing arts and a discussion led by Dr. William Benjamin, head of the music department, and Dr. Norman Young of the theatre department.
- 4:00 Arrive at Social Suite of Faculty Club for a reception.
Closing remarks by University President pro tem. Robert Smith: presentation to MLAs of copies of Two Political Worlds: Parties and Voting in British Columbia by Dr. Donald Blake, UBC political science department, published by UBC Press, and of "Vancouver Gold" from the UBC Botanical Garden.