

Star

Belgium

HENRY MORGAN & Co., Limited

Coat-of-Arms of the City of Antwerp. A background of a man and a maid, and leaf design, carved in wood. Castle, crown, round floral designs, set with diamonds, pearls and other precious stones. At bottom are the letters S.P.Q.A. set with diamonds. Loaned by the Administration of the Town Hall to the Federation of Belgian Diamond Clubs, thence here for the Exposition.

The Belgo-Canadian EXPOSITION NOW OPEN

An Exposition that you must not miss seeing. None of the articles in the Exposition have been shown before in Canada. They are widely varied in subjects, catering to those interested in art, antiques, painting, modern manufacturing, etc., etc. No matter what you are interested in, you're sure to find something here to catch your attention. NO ADMISSION CHARGE. Fifth Floor.

Under the auspices of l'Association Belgique Canada, with the co-operation of the Belgian Government and the patronage of the Baron Silvercruys, Belgian Minister to Canada.