CARRIED

Ian resumed chairing the meeting.

10. PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION REPORT

Melody presented a brief provincial report and spoke in favour of a fulltime Secretary-Treasurer position. Nancy responded.

At this point in the meeting several people began to leave and there were motions from the floor to adjourn. It was brought to the members attention that the issue of the per capita tax had not been resolved and as it stood this tax would not be sent to the provincial association this month. As the motion regarding payment of the per capita tax could not be made until after discussion of Jerry Andersen's motion -

Jerry Andersen Robert Gaytan That the motion shown in the agenda under the Provincial Assn. report be tabled until the next membership meeting.

CARRIED

Frances Wasserlein That we pay the per capita tax owing for December 1975.
Pat Gibson CARRIED

Another motion to adjourn was received from the floor but as there were only a couple of items remaining on the agenda this motion was withdrawn,

11. STRIKE REPORT (Nancy Wiggs)

Nancy announced the meetings to be held in the armouries and encouraged people to attend.

12. Contract Committee Report (Dale McAslan)

Dale did not have much to report but said that the contract committee for the contract just signed was willing to meet with new representatives.

At this point enough people left to lose the quorum.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:10 p.m.

CORRESPONDENCE REPORT FOR GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING JANUARY 15, 1976 - 5:00 p.m. - IRC2

- 1. Letter from Thomas A. Dohm to Clive B. Lytle. READ.
- 2. Letter of support from Cathy Walker, Secretary, Confederation of Canadian Unions, B.C. Council (December 10, 1975).
- 3. Capy of letter from Duane Berkey, President, Burnaby Teachers' Association to the Faculty of Education expressing concern that faculty members continued to hold examinations during our strike, putting students in position of crossing a legal picket line. We sent a reply thanking them for their support and suggesting a copy of that letter be sent to the Faculty Association who would not take an official stand during the strike, saying that it was each individual faculty member's responsibility as to whether or not they crossed our picket lines.
- 4. Letter of support from Roy Klein, Recording Secretary, Canadian Association of Industrial, Mechanical and Allied Workers ¶December 12, 1975).
- 5. Letter of apology and cheque for $30.00 to cover working one day during strike from scab. Executive felt this was acceptable as payment for crossing our picket lines during the strike (person had worked one day during the strike).

- 6. Letter from member asking Executive to encourage people to be more tolerant of those who crossed our picket lines. We replied that the Executive had noted its content and to keep an eye out for articles in upcoming newsletters discussing the issues of union membership and democracy.
- 7. Letter from member who wrote to say she was resigning from the Union and quitting her job at UBC because she had disagreements in principle with the Union. We replied same as above letter.
- 8. Letter of support from Cliff Andstein, B.C. Government Employees' Union expressing interest in our struggle to reduce wage categories. He also sent a copy of their recently signed contract.
- 9. Letter from member asking if she could resign from Union because of trauma experienced during strike, feeling she was "on the wrong side of the fence", Executive replied saying it was not possible to resign from the Union short of leaving the University and explained that it was necessary for everyone to make themselves heard within the Union, stressing our democratic principles.
