Dear Cathy,

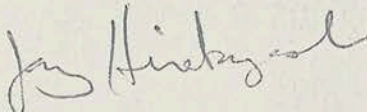

Enclosed are copies of materials which the Grievance Committee has used to select possible arbitrators. Of the two lists dated May and June 7, 1977, the University's Labour Committee rejected all but Arnie Abramson. Currently, the Grievance Committee and the Labour Committee have agreed on Donald R. Monroe, Hugh Ladner (their nominations) and Arnie Abramson. If you are interested in knowing how these lawyers perform as arbitrators, you might call Ann Hutchison after the 19th of August (for Ladner) and after Sept. 9th (for Abramson).

The three birds, David Pigeon, Bruce Partridge and Richard Bird all have had a lot of experience and the last in particular is recommended. Angus MacDonald also returned a questionnaire that put him in the favoured class. We have had questionnaires from most of those mentioned on our lists and would be happy to send copies if you would like to see them.

We would also appreciate hearing of any other arbitrator candidates that you receive recommendations for.

Good luck in your negotiations. Hope you don't have to use binding arbitration to get a settlement.

Sincerely,

Jay Hirabayashi
