

would give us a strong bargaining position. He felt it would also boost the morale of members.

M. Boucher said that the employee, not the Union, had the right to the use of such interest monies. He said Joyce's plan would also not allow for individual flexibility. Besides it's too late. C. Agnew agreed with Neil & also said it could prove divisive within the Union and unworkable.

V. Pusey asked Joyce if all members would have to go along with such a plan. Joyce said a majority would have to.

M. Wiggs said she was worried about the amount of work this would mean for the Treasurer. J. Anderson echoed this worry.

T. Gibson said we cannot go back on the agreement we made with the University. He said the Union would have to take total responsibility for such a project and he was sure of this.

on the agenda

Carried

26. Babysitting - Jerry Anderson wanted some relief provided for executive members who need babysitters. He asked that someone on the executive move such a motion.

Nancy Wiggs

that if executive members need

Vicki McNeill

babysitters so they could attend evening executive meetings the Union will pay if no other alternatives can be found.

It was pointed out that some members might well resent this and see it as a "perk".

M. Wiggs

that motion be changed to read "if

R. Layton

members need baby-sitters so they can attend evening executive meetings, which they are required to attend, the Union will pay if no other alternatives can be found."

Some people felt this benefit should not be limited to executive meetings. Some felt the issue should be referred to the membership.

C. Agnew

A. Korman

that this motion be referred to the next lunch hour membership meeting.

that we buy 2 Robert's Rules & Burman's Rules of Order for the trustees.

4c. Strike Vote - referred to next meeting.

4d. Strike Com's Proposed Plan of Action

Dicki McNeill that the leaflet (distributed at mem. meeting) be approved.

M. Wigg noted this motion was out of order because the membership voted that an all-Committee meeting must approve the leaflet.

5. Correspondence - Referred to next meeting.

6. Grievance Report - We spent 3 days in arbitration & didn't finish even 1 case. We're in again on the 27th. Kevin & Nancy gave gloomy impressions on the state of labour relations.

Meeting adjourned.
