Dear Sirs,

Attention Mr. J.W. Brayshaw.

In reply to your further letter of July 30th, I wish to inform you that surgical instruments have been removed from the Barter List by decree of October 20th, 1936. The following items had already been removed from the Barter List by a previous decree of May 14th, 1936:

Steel injection needles, nickel or chrome-plated,
Canules of pure nickel as well as of nickel composition and bronze.

Yours very truly,

The German Consul General
