

Association of University and College Employees

It is agreed that the salaries of all representatives of the Union shall be continued during negotiations.

The Union agrees that the University may request the names of any representatives in excess of six at any meeting and request reimbursement from the Treasurer of the Union for the salaries of said representatives for the period which they attend negotiations.

The University agrees that the workload of the representatives of the Union will not be increased during the periods that they are at work.

For the University

W. L. Clark

For the Union

Jean Lawrence

September 16th, 1976