Dear Sir,

I have a daughter who is studying at the University at Munich and I am desirous of sending her a Xmas parcel. I am inquiring here at Post Office and Custom House. I could get no information and was referred to you. I would like to know if there are any articles that go into Germany duty free or Xmas.

Am sorry to have to bother you with my affairs but it seemed impossible to get any information here.

Am enclosing a stamped and addressed for a reply and accept my thanks for the trouble I am putting you to. An early reply would be appreciated as the times grow short till times.

Yours gratefully
M. Scholes.

or if it would be possible to pack her a times parcel of homemade things such as we sent overseas. and would they go duty free or if not could I pay any duty and at what rate would it be.

They are studying and every cent has been appropriated and the difference in the exchange has already depleted their funds. (my daughter and her two friends) and there would be no use of my sending gifts if the duty was so high. it would take the joy from the gifts.
