

Letter to Editor (Newsletters)

FEB 16 1988

Office for Women Students

February 15th, 1988

To: Letters to the Editor page
CUE

Re: Covers on CUE Newsletters

First of all, I wonder where our sense of humour has gone. Are we taking ourselves so seriously that we can't have a smile now, albeit an ironic one? Too bad.

Contrary to the CUE President's opinion that the February cover is "insulting to our membership", people in our office found it right-on. I know when I opened my January 15th pay statement and found my take-home pay was $5 (that's right, FIVE) more than usual, "Big Deal" as depicted on the February cover, was exactly how I felt.

That is no reflection on our Contract Committee but rather comment on our employer and the pervading poor economic times! It goes without saying how much we all appreciate the hard work our Contract Committee does on our behalf, BUT, that doesn't cancel some misgivings we may have about the current contract. We are not sheep.

As always, the answer is that if you don't like what the Contract Committee, the Communications Committee or any other committee is doing, then get on those committees and do the work yourself. In the meantime, let's lighten up.

Barbara Brighton
Barbara Brighton

c.c. Communications Committee ✓

DATE 18 Feb 88	DISTRIBUTE TO
COMMUNICATIONS	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CONTRACT	<input type="checkbox"/>
EXECUTIVE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRIEVANCE	<input type="checkbox"/>

Letter to Editor (Newsletters)

FEB 16 1988

Office for Women Students

February 15th, 1988

To: Letters to the Editor page
CUE

Re: Covers on CUE Newsletters

First of all, I wonder where our sense of humour has gone. Are we taking ourselves so seriously that we can't have a smile now, albeit an ironic one? Too bad.

Contrary to the CUE President's opinion that the February cover is "insulting to our membership", people in our office found it right-on. I know when I opened my January 15th pay statement and found my take-home pay was $5 (that's right, FIVE) more than usual, "Big Deal" as depicted on the February cover, was exactly how I felt.

That is no reflection on our Contract Committee but rather comment on our employer and the pervading poor economic times! It goes without saying how much we all appreciate the hard work our Contract Committee does on our behalf, BUT, that doesn't cancel some misgivings we may have about the current contract. We are not sheep.

As always, the answer is that if you don't like what the Contract Committee, the Communications Committee or any other committee is doing, then get on those committees and do the work yourself. In the meantime, let's lighten up.

Barbara Brighton

c.c. Communications Committee