vom 20. Dez. v. J.

Das mit dem Einzug der Forderung in Höhe von RM 64,- beauftragte Inkassobuero hat mitgeteilt, dass die unternommenen Schritte gegen die Firma DECATUR, BULL & COMPANY, Montreal, ohne Erfolg geblieben sind.

Zu einer Klage kann nicht geraten werden, da der Schuldner zahlungsunfähig ist. Die Forderung muss daher als verloren angesehen werden.

Dear Sirs:- 16072 re Decatur Bull & Company.

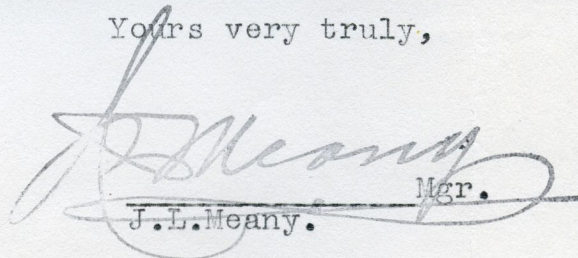

We have transferred the above claim to attorneys, as we have been unable to obtain any satisfaction through demands from this office, and believe it will be necessary for you to instruct suit, before the account is collected.

January 25th a seizure was placed upon the effects of debtor and sale advertised for February 2nd, which has not taken place as we are advised by attorney for the Plaintiff that same is being held in abeyance.

February 7th Judgment for $25.00 rendered against debtor in favour of J.E. Lortie & Cie. Ltee., in connection with a past due account, which was settled by debtor paying the costs and returning merchandise.

February 17th, Writ for $26.00 in favour of Werry Royal in connection with a past due account. In this case the Plaintiff is proceeding to obtain Judgment. With this information kindly favour us with definite instructions, and oblige.

Yours very truly,

Mgr.
J.E. Meany.

Die vorstehende Firma schuldet mir aus einer Warenlieferung vom 16. August 1937 einen Betrag von Reichsmark 64,00, und handelt es sich hier um eine kleine Probesendung, worauf angeblich Bestellungen kommen sollten. Nach Lieferung derselben, lässt die Firma nichts mehr von sich hören und alle meine Bitten um Begleichung dieses Betrages sind erfolglos geblieben.

Ich bitte Sie höfl. mir bei der Eintreibung des Postens Ihre Unterstützung zu teil werden zu lassen und wäre Ihnen dankbar, wenn Sie die Firma zur Zahlung auffordern würden.

Ihnen für Ihre Bemühungen im Voraus bestens dankend, empfehle ich mich Ihnen

mit deutschem Gruss
