

VOTE YES FOR AUCE!

AUCE, the Association of University and College Employees, was formed on campus last August by the office and library employees at UBC.

Our union is completely independent and the entire organizing drive was financed by our own members. We feel that we, as workers at UBC, understand our problems best, therefore we can find the best solutions.

On April 8, 9 and 10, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the B.C. Dept. of Labour will be conducting a representation vote on campus. We are going to have a chance, once and for all, to show the Administration that we want our own union.

VOTE YES FOR:

Better wages
Fairer job classifications
Longer vacations
Etc.

WHERE - April 8 Monday - Geological Sciences Building, Room 134
April 9 Tuesday - Auditorium Cafeteria
April 10 Wednesday - War Memorial Gym Foyer

WHO - all full time and part-time clerical and library employees at UBC, excluding student assistants and those employees already represented by a trade-union.

WHEN - Monday: 7:45 a.m.-10:15 a.m. / 1:45 p.m.-7:00 p.m.

The UBC personnel office has agreed that people are entitled to a reasonable time off work to vote.

If anyone needs assistance getting to the polls, call the union office (224-5613) to arrange for a ride. Our office will be open all day during the vote.
